Media Tech commencing in July

Media Tech artists Casey Rice and Emile Zile will be back in July offering creative and skills development workshops in the FCAC new media and MIDI facilities, with the opportunity for live event video, sound and production experience. Media Tech will link to Footscray Arts' project outcomes and be targeted to participants aged 16-30 with some experience. Casey Rice is a producer, program designer and musician with over 20 years of national and international experience. He has worked as a sound engineer with artists such as Ben Lee, remixed for Placebo and Kid 606 and has created and programmed software for Tortoise, Wilco and The Chicago Underground Duo. Emile Zile is an Australian-born media artist of Latvian origin. A multi-disciplinary artist, his single-channel videos, text installations, live video performances and photography have been exhibited at the Australian Centre for the Moving Image, Australian Centre for Contemporary Art Melbourne, Museum fur Gestaltung Zurich, Tel Aviv cinematheque and Seoul Fringe Festival.
